Round-up

We're set to welcome thousands of people to services and events in the days running up to and including Christmas Day! The choir is key to the success of attracting so many into the building on top of a number of services and concerts already this term. Read on for a roundup on our concert in the Mary Rose Museum, a London carol service and preparations for our traditional four Christmas Carol Services, Midnight Mass and Christmas Day services.

New People...

It has been brilliant to welcome our splendid Choral Scholars Henry, Alex, Jeremy and Sam as well as our talented Organ Scholar, Michael as well as Lay Clerk Eliot Mead all of whom were installed at the start of term alongside Dr Annika Lindskog. We were also pleased to install three girls as Senior Choristers. Well done to Elsie, Jenna and Grace. Congratulations too to Evelyn and Olivia, Alex, Sam, Hugh and Dan who make up this year's Head Chorister team.

Former Chorister Reunion

Earlier this term we welcomed thirty former cathedral choristers to Evensong for their Annual Reunion. We were immensely privileged to have former Head Choristers Guy Snowball and Benjamin Nash attend and speak to us. Two brilliant speeches with memories and life skills learnt from their time in the choir.

Requiems

This year our choirs tackled two beautiful and different Requiems. The Girls and Back Row gave a beautiful rendition of the Fauré Requiem for All Souls' Day. The Boys and Back Row sang the Durufié Requiem on Remembrance Sunday itself.

Mary Rose Concert and THE BIG GIVE

The Cathedral Choir (Boys) gave a splendid carol concert in The Gallery at The Mary Rose Museum as part of our 2025 BigGive Campaign. As a result of generosity on the night and that week we raised just under £22,000 for the music department.

Cathedral Sing

St Cecilia Evensong

We welcomed nearly 150 children to join with our Cathedral Choir to sing a special Evensong for St Cecilia Day last month. All the children enthusiastically joined in with the Psalm, Magnificat, anthem and final rousing rendition of Vaughan Williams The Old 100th!

The Snowman

Don't miss this month's performance of The Snowman with The Solent Symphony Orchestra. The Cathedral Choir will also sing a short selection of carols with the audience participation! And last month, one of our Boy Choristers performed the Snowman solo at Oaklands School for a professional orchestra—well done Daniel!

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Carol Service

We were honoured to sing for the annual Commonwealth War Graves Commission Carol Service held at All Hallows By The Tower, London.

The Girls and Back Row sang a beautiful service alongside Mared Pugh-Evans, Official Harpist to His Majesty The King.
